

Cask Ales

We pride ourselves on the quality of our cask ales and celebrate the fact that some of the finest come from the local area. Here are some of the local breweries that we work with.

Bakewell, Derbyshire Thornbridge Brewery

Winner of over 200 national and international awards since 2005, Thornbridge brewery uses Innovation, Passion and Knowledge in every brew. They enjoy making every one of their beers. We hope you enjoy drinking them in The Grain Loft!

Salopian Brewery, Shrewsbury, Shropshire

Established at The Old Dairy on the outskirts of medieval Shrewsbury in 1995, since when the brewery has become synonymous with the production of top quality consistent ales.

Marble Brewery, Manchester

Marble beers began brewing in 1997 after the owners decided it was a choice between a karaoke room or independent brewing, to aide the survival of 'The Marble Arch Inn'. The emphasis is on high quality ingredients, creating great tasting beers with a real talking point.

Dunham Massey, Altrincham

A small family run craft brewery located on National Trust land in the town of Dunham Massey that is as traditional as you can get. All the ingredients are English and are sourced as locally as possible. Their philosophy is to use the best English malts and hops, with no added sugars, to brew quality, traditional North Western beers.

Weetwood Brewery, Tarporley, Cheshire

A small award winning local brewery situated just outside the country village of Tarporley. Weetwood produce high quality and distinctive cask conditioned ales to suit the most discerning of palates.
